PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS APPLICATION FORM

REGENT-GHANA RESIDENTIAL POLICY

The University is presently a non-residence Institution. However, the University Community is divided into five groups (in the future, they will be Residential halls) called Societies.- Anim Society, McKweon Society, Nkrumah Society, Ubuntu Society & John Stott Society. You will be assigned a Society to belong to and participate in its various activities.

FINANCIAL AID POLICY

The University has a policy to help students who are seriously financially challenged and thus unable to pay their fees. There is also a scholarship available to outstanding students or students who have demonstrated the qualities Regent-Ghana wishes to hone. Please contact the Accounts Office for further details.

ALL APPPLICANTS

The application requirements are as follows- each applicant must provide the relevant and correct information in every line of this form as well as-

- Two recommendation forms, filled by the appropriate people
- Three passport photographs, in decent attire, taken within the past three months, without any head covering.
- A copy of the receipt of payment for this application
- A signed Honor Pledge.

Please note that until we have received all the required items your application shall not be processed.

HONOR PLEDGE

I fully recognize that Regent University College of Science & Technology is founded to be and is committed to being a Christian University offering a lifestyle of academic pursuit, developing human potential in a Christ-like manner to meet, compete with and lead changing needs in the global environment.

I fully recognize that in signing this pledge, I become part of a purpose driven community committed to spiritual renewal, social renewal, economic renewal and technological renewal bolstered by knowledge and Christian ethical values.

I PLEDGE to apply myself wholeheartedly to my intellectual pursuits, using them to the glory of God and my Country.

I PLEDGE to cultivate good social relationships; treating others as I would have myself treated. I will refrain from lies, thievery, cheating, using improper language or inappropriately collaborate with other students on assignments. I will be courteous at all times.

I PLEDGE to refrain from immoral and illegal activities, off and on campus as well as other prohibited behaviour listed in the Students Handbook.

I PLEDGE to attend classes; all required Chapel services on campus and participate in all Regent-Ghana activities, conducting myself with integrity and in a well behaved manner.

I PLEDGE to dress decently and properly at all times during my education period in Regent-Ghana. If my dressing is found to be unacceptable at any time, I shall obey instructions to change immediately.

I PLEDGE to abide by the rules and regulations of the University. I accept that as a private institution, The University reserves the right to require the withdrawal of a student at any time, if such an action is deemed right by the Disciplinary Committee of the School.

I will keep this pledge to the best of my ability, so help me God.
